

ST. MARY'S
EPISCOPAL CHURCH
— BARNSTABLE —

RELEASE DATE: August 25, 2025

Barnstable, MA:

September 11th Day of Remembrance

The Barnstable Fire Department & the Barnstable Police Department will again join St. Mary's Episcopal Church to host a special Day of Remembrance on Thursday, September 11 in Barnstable Village. This is the 17th year of the joint recognition that honors and remembers the nearly 3,000 lost on 9/11/01. At 10 AM at the Barnstable Fire Department, 3249 Main Street, we will hold a ceremony featuring Cyndy Jones, Founder of Heroes in Transition, as guest speaker. Several members of the community will participate, including Suzanne Tonaire, as the soloist. Fire Chief Chris Beal will lead the program.

At 10:30 a procession will begin at the fire house and walk up Main Street to St. Mary's Episcopal Church. It will be led by Leslie Kenny on bagpipes and the Barnstable Police Department Honor Guard. The service starts at St Mary's at 10:45 and will feature patriot music and special readings recognizing this solemn day and all those lost and impacted. Dr John Cox, President of Cape Cod Community College will be the Keynote speaker. The Rev. Dr. Russ Norris will officiate. A reception will follow in St Mary's Old English Gardens.
